

MINT webtool

Appendix Activities

This document can be used to answer questions in the section on Internationalization Activities in both the central and programme questionnaires of the MINT tool. Questions on the use of the questionnaires and this appendix can be send to mint@nuffic.nl.

A1 Education in English or another foreign language

- a. Programme elements entirely in English
- b. Programme elements in another foreign language
- c. Programme elements organised abroad
- d. Preparatory school
- e. Summer school
- f. Double or joint degree programmes
- g. Tailor-made courses
- h. Non-degree courses
- i. Refresher courses
- j. E-learning
- k. Other, please specify:

A2 Credit mobility

- a. Study abroad
- b. Work placement
- c. International project
- d. Graduation project
- e. Research
- f. Other, please specify:

Comments

Programme elements entirely in English:	Part of a programme could be a course, a module, subject etc.
Programme elements in another foreign language :	This may be English or any other foreign language.
Programme elements organised abroad:	Programme elements not being joint/double/multiple degree programmes
Preparatory school:	The prep school prepares students academically and/or socially for studying in the host country. The preparation is meant to increase the level of the students at least up to the entrance standards of the programme of their choice.
Double or joint degree programmes:	This programme is set up in close cooperation between two or more partners. Successful conclusion of the programme leads to diploma's of both the home institute and the partner institute (s).
Non-degree courses:	Courses not leading to a Bachelor Master or PhD degree.
International project:	Not being a graduation project.
Research:	Not being research for any of the former categories.

A3 Recruitment of foreign students

- g. Participation in fairs abroad
- h. Alumni helping out with recruitment
- i. Partner institutions helping out with recruitment
- j. Agents
- k. International visitors to the website
- l. Ads placed in international media
- m. International school visits
- n. Other, please specify:

A4 Internationalization of the curriculum

CONTENT

- a. Courses in Intercultural skills
- b. English language courses for students
- c. Dutch language courses for foreign students
- d. Other foreign language courses for students
- e. Programme elements aimed at the study of an international subject
- f. such as European Social Legislation
- g. Programme elements that include the international comparison of a
- h. subject such as International Comparative Education.
- i. Programme elements focused on a particular country or region.
- j. Other, please specify:

STYLE

- k. Virtual mobility
- l. International (research) project
- m. Using foreign literature
- n. Joint/double/multiple degree programmes
- o. Cases in an international context
- p. Local knowledge of (foreign) students is used explicitly
- q. Other, please specify:

Comments

- School visits : To international schools in the home country and abroad and to local schools abroad.
- Language courses : Courses to study the language.

A5 Internationalization of staff

- a. Members of staff recruited with international experience
- b. Members of staff recruited on the international job market
- c. Foreign visiting professors
- d. Members of staff taking intercultural skills training
- e. Professors taking 'Didactics in the International Classroom' training
- f. Members of staff taking English language training
- g. Members of staff with permanent residence abroad
- h. Members of staff with structural contacts with foreign colleagues
- i. Other, please specify:

A6 International knowledge sharing

- a. Capacity building (development cooperation) projects
- b. International consulting assignments
- c. International conferences organized by the unit
- d. Training programmes for staff of partner institutes abroad
- e. Shared supervisions or co-tutelles
- f. Other, please specify:

A7 International research activities

- a. Research centres focused on an explicitly international research topic
- b. Researchers with a foreign nationality
- c. Researchers with a foreign higher education degree
- d. Scientific (peer-reviewed) publications published in English or another foreign language
- e. Professional publications published in English or another foreign language
- f. Patents filed outside the country
- g. Other, please specify:

Comments

- Members of staff : All kinds of employees in an institution for higher education, i.e. educators, researchers, support staff, management etc.
- Professors: Staff member with teaching tasks.
- Research centres : Including Lectoraten/'knowledge circles' in Dutch UAS. Focussing on e.g. a specific region in the world, a specific international dimension or on issues like globalisation and regionalization.