

EURASHE 32nd Annual Conference: Skills for Europe – Mobilising Higher Education for the Green and Digital Transitions

8-9 June 2023 | Bucharest, Romania

Additional information to know before the event

Language

The conference will be held entirely in English, no simultaneous translation will be provided.

Social media

You can follow updates on the conference via our profiles in LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook and Youtube, or searching for the hashtag #EURASHE32.

Photos

For purposes of communication, photos and videos will be taken during the event. These may appear in both University Politehnica of Bucharest and EURASHE channels and publications. Should you not prefer to appear, please let us know.

Currency

Please note that the currency in Romania is the Romanian Leu (RON). Most payment terminals may accept Visa, Mastercard or other credit cards, and you can easily find currency exchange facilities at the airports and in the city centre.

Transport

Several Metro and Bus lines communicate the conference venue, University Politehnica of Bucharest, with the airport and the historical centre of the city. To get more information, please visit STB SA.

Contact us

If you have any questions or comments, please contact us at events@eurashe.eu.